

Signals & Stories

A printable conversation card game - sample member content

How to use these cards

Print the pages, cut along the lines, or simply read one prompt at a time. These cards are intended for thoughtful conversation between adults. Participation is always optional; passing on a prompt is a complete answer.

A song that changed you

Share a song that marked a turning point in your life. What did it teach you?

Atmosphere

Describe the setting where you feel most creative, calm, or fully yourself.

Trust in practice

Name one small action that helps people feel heard and respected around you.

Unspoken stories

What is something you wish people asked about more often?

Creative courage

What would you make if you knew nobody would judge the first draft?

Boundaries and care

What makes a boundary feel clear, kind, and easy to understand?

A memorable invitation

Describe an invitation that made you feel genuinely welcome.

The soundtrack

Choose three songs for a late-night listening room and explain the order.

Mystery

What makes something intriguing without making it confusing?

Community

What behavior helps a group feel safe enough for honest conversation?

Personal ritual

Share a small ritual that helps you reset after a demanding day.

Next chapter

Name one experience you would like to create or attend this year.